General Education Foundation (GEF) Curriculum

The GEF courses provide students with academic and intellectual breadth of knowledge to appreciate the broad context of their actions, their choices, and their world beyond their nursing major. General Education Foundation courses will help students build the foundational skills and knowledge necessary to reason clearly, communicate effectively, think critically, and contribute to society. The GEF courses will be designed to ensure that students meet these goals through inquiry-based learning across disciplines. The GEF coursework will contribute to the fulfillment of the University's goals as follows: 1) creating well-rounded students with a broad base of skills and knowledge, 2) linking together the courses that students will take at WVU, and 3) instilling in students a permanent connection to learning and education, giving them the skills to learn what they need outside a formal educational environment. The GEF courses will help students be thoughtful participants in a democratic society, and to achieve the intellectual integration and awareness they will need to adapt to changes and meet challenges in their personal, social, and professional lives.

GEF courses will be designed to enhance students' knowledge and skill in composition and rhetoric; science and technology; mathematics and quantitative skills; society and connections; human inquiry and the past; the arts and creativity; and global studies and diversity. The BSN required courses fulfill all but 2 GEF categories, which means that students will be required to take only two three-credit GEF courses (one from F5: Human Inquiry and the Past and one from F6: Arts and Creativity). These GEF courses are already established on the PSC campus.
